Description

Description:	We are selling a stone house in the center of Krnica. The house is 150 years old and was completely renovated a few years ago. The beauty of the living area of 145 m ² is distributed on the ground floor, first floor and high attic, i.e. the living and sleeping areas. The living area consists of a spacious living room with a fully equipped kitchen and dining room. A fireplace is perfectly integrated into the living room, and there are three bedrooms with high ceilings on the first floor. A beautifully landscaped garden and an approach to the house are located on the garden plot. What makes this property special is its incredible location, in the very center of town and a few minutes from the sea. For all information and to view the
