Description

Description: Barban, surroundings, building land 5427 sqm. Barban is a historic town located in eastern Istria on a hill above the Gulf of Raska. Known for the knight's game Ring Race, which is traditionally held in August, and which has its roots in 1696. Barban is also proud of its well-preserved Baroque and Gothic architectural buildings, frescoes and a sense of original Istria. In a quiet and peaceful settlement about 10 minutes drive from Barban, we offer building land suitable for the construction of several buildings. At the end of the village last in the construction zone is located this land. Barban, surroundings, building land 5427 sqm has access from a macadam road, and about 80 - 90 m from the paved road, there is only one house nearby. Electrical network, water supply network, telephone, are near the land. The construction of residential buildings such as a family house, a holiday home with a swimming pool with a maximum height of P + 2 is allowed. A special feature of the land is the possibility of developing 5-6 houses / villas with swimming pools. Quiet and pleasant location, surrounded by green meadows. ID CODE: 321
