Description

Description:

Juršići is a small town located in the southwest of Istria. They are located in the municipality of Savičenta, or Svetvičenat, which got its name from the patron saint of St. Vnicencija, whose name adorns one of the five churches of this place. The Renaissance town is one of Istria's jewels with a rich tourist offer and numerous events that take place in the extraordinarily attractive historical spaces of this town. One of these is precisely the best-preserved stone castle in these areas, the well-known Kaštel Grimani. This special town with a rich tradition, with its interesting and diverse programs, the most prominent of which are the Medieval Festival, the Cheese Festival and the Festival of Dance and Non-Verbal Theater, attracts numerous visitors every year. Not far from the center of this town, hidden from the noise, there is an old stone house. Entering under a pergola made of grapes that provides shade on hot summer days, or "sterna" as an integral part of autochthonous Istrian construction, undoubtedly carry their charm of living in untouched nature. The surface of the house of 153 m2 extends to the ground floor, the first floor with two rooms and the attic. It is sold together with an auxiliary building, a former tavern with a fireplace located outside the yard. Part of the roof has been renovated, while the rest is waiting for its new owners, who will invest in tradition and breathe new life into this charming house, which is a potential for a good investment or an escape from the everyday hustle and bustle. ID CODE: IS105249
