Description

Description: Svetvinčenat, located in the south of central Istria, is one of the jewels of Istria, where the tourist offer has been revived in recent years, especially through various events that take place in the beautiful historical spaces of this medieval town. - Located in a quiet village, just 12 km from the municipal town of Svetvinčent, there is a building plot with a total area of 2472 m². The land has a regular shape, and is located right next to the paved road that leads through the village. All necessary communal infrastructure is located nearby. The land is in a quiet location, which is an ideal position for building a holiday home that will have its peace and quiet away from the city noise. ID CODE: 487
