accommodation services. A pleasant combination of traditional and simple finishes makes this house extremely warm and cozy. The location of the house and the fenced yard are a big plus in choosing a home, and the house has all the characteristics of the warmth of a home. It is designed in such a way that each apartment has its own outdoor terrace for enjoyment. There is even the possibility of building an outdoor swimming pool behind the house, which would complete the overall experience. What brings every house to life is an outdoor fireplace with a large terrace where you can spend unforgettable moments with your family and friends. Solar panels contribute to great savings in utility costs. The house can be accessed both from the neighborhood and through a convenient driveway at the back of the house that leads directly to a large yard, very private and invisible from the street. That's why we invite you to come and see for yourself. location Poreč belongs to its location on the west coast of Istria, and is also the largest tourist center in Istria. ID CODE: IS105448
