Description

Description: For sale is a private estate in a secluded area in Šišan. It is located only 3500 meters from the sea and in front of the entrance to Šišan. It consists of a 100 m² house, an outbuilding and a 14,000 m² plot of land. The house consists of a basement, on the ground floor there is a kitchen, a living room, a bedroom and a bathroom. The living room leads to the terrace. The house also has an attic that can be converted into two bedrooms and has access to another terrace. The house needs adaptation. It has electricity and water connection and its own borehole with which the entire property is maintained. The vast land on which people engage in agriculture is regularly maintained. It contains various fruits and vegetables and olives, as well as part of an open meadow and forest. In addition to the agricultural part, there is also a construction part of 750m² on which construction is possible. The property is a rare opportunity on the market given its location, proximity to the sea, size and everything it contains.
