Description

Description:	Mali Lošinj, we are selling agricultural land on the west coast, right next to the sea. In nature these are three particles, two of them are large, next to each other, a total of 14174 m<sup>2</sup>, and the third smallest is in a separate location. The terrain is slightly sloping, covered by low vegetation, overlooking the Union. There is currently no paved road to the land, but it is possible to solve in the near future. Due to the size of the land, it is possible to build a smaller house intended for agricultural activity. Excellent location, proper shape and large area make this land interesting for investment.
