Description

Description: Motovun is probably the most famous and most attractive Istrian medieval town. In addition to numerous cultural and historical sights, Motovun and its surroundings can boast numerous vineyards and famous winemakers, recreational facilities that enable an active vacation such as grape harvesting, asparagus picking, truffle gathering, fishing, paragliding, free climbing, canoeing, and for the beautiful time, above Motovun, it is possible to ride in a hot air balloon. The most famous event that takes place in this city at the end of July is the Motovun Film Festival. In the vicinity of Motovun there is a construction plot with a total area of 2134 m². The land has a view towards Lake Butonigli from the south and Motovun towards the west. The property has an access road, and the connections for electricity, water and telephone are located twenty meters from the property itself. Due to its excellent location, this property is ideal for building a holiday home. ID CODE: 899
