Description

Description: At the foot of the Učka massif, in the north of the Istrian peninsula, is the village of Čepić, which was named after the former lake of the same name. For sale is a building plot with a total area of 6486 m², in a quiet part of the village. The land is rectangular in shape with a slight slope. Electricity and water are nearby, and an asphalted road leads to the land. The distance to Labin is 15 km, to the Učka tunnel 23 km. This land is ideal for building a house with a large garden, which has many possibilities, depending on the wishes and needs of the owner, or it can be an opportunity for investment and the construction of several buildings.
