Description

Description: Vodnjan was an important urban center in the past, and today this city is an exciting destination, especially for lovers of art and culture. Walking through the old part of the city, you will notice numerous historical periods: Gothic, Renaissance, and Baroque. The museum is in a palace built in 1300, which belonged to the Bettica family. The most important branch of the economy is traditional olive growing, the production of extra virgin olive oil. There are several oil mills. In addition, the population is engaged in viticulture, animal husbandry, and trade, mainly domestic production. Undoubtedly the greatest specialty of this region is the Istrian language of the autochthonous population dating back to Roman times. The most important event is the Bumblebee Festival, which takes place in August. In the vicinity of Vodnjan, 1000 meters from the sea, a building plot with a sea view of a total area of 847 m2 is for sale. It is located at the end of the construction zone, with all communal infrastructure nearby, and a well-maintained road reaches the land. There is a possibility of buying more land to get a larger area—ideal for building a holiday villa or multi-apartment house. ID CODE: 940
