Description

Description: Croatia is a European country, in the geopolitical sense a Central European and Mediterranean country, geographically located in the southern part of Central Europe and the northern part of the Mediterranean. It borders Slovenia and Hungary in the north, Serbia and Bosnia and Herzegovina in the east and Montenegro in the south, and Italy in the west. The capital is Zagreb, which is the political, cultural, scientific, and economic center of the Republic of Croatia. In the western part of Croatia, in the northern part of the Adriatic, more precisely between the Kvarner and Trieste bays, Istria is located, on a peninsula of rich tradition and culture, diverse nature, and hospitable people. Small towns, as well as places in the countryside traditions of the Istrian peninsula, preserve the thousand-year history and architectural heritage of these regions. Istria is the largest of the Croatian and Adriatic peninsulas. Exactly in Istria, not far away from the largest Istrian city of Pula, is the village of Ližnjan, where this attractive land for sale is located. On an area of 11,465 m², with access roads, surrounded on 2 sides by the old Hungarian wall, and all the necessary infrastructure (+substation), this land makes an excellent opportunity for investors who invest in the construction of T1 and T2 purposes. Considering that the land itself is part of the finished project - a sports and recreation center, the condition is the construction of a hotel as an integral part of the center, or several villas. The capital of Croatia, Zagreb, is 269 km from Istria by road and 197 km by air. The advantage of the location is a very good connection both by road and by air, since the main airport Pula is 25 km away, and a sport private airport Medulin is 6 km away. It is also important to note the Marco Polo airport in Venice (Italy), which is only 285 km away by road from the mentioned location. For any additional information, please feel free to contact us.
