Description

Description:

Pula, the largest city of the Istrian County, lies on the southwestern part of the Istrian peninsula in a well-protected bay. The town has a long tradition of winemaking, fishing, shipbuilding and tourism, and is also a transit port. Pula has been the administrative center of Istria since Roman times. In the very center of Pula, there is an office space, which is located on the first floor of the building, with a total area of 40.02 m2. The building is approached directly from the main road, and it is beautifully decorated, maintained and has a representative appearance. The office space consists of two separate rooms and a bathroom with a toilet. The space is heated by air conditioning, and it should be emphasized that the entire space is tiled, that it has a burglar-proof door and a video intercom.
