Description

Description:	This beautiful villa is located in Central Istria, in the interior of the magnificent Istrian peninsula. Pazin Cave and Pazin Castle, which inspired the French writer Jules Verne for the novel "Mathis Sandorf", are located near the villa. Central Istria is known for its landscape consisting of small, picturesque, medieval towns that are irresistibly reminiscent of Tuscany and Provence. During your stay in Istria, visit the episcopal complex Euphrasian Basilica (under UNESCO protection) in the historic center of Poreč and the well-preserved Roman amphitheater in Pula, or simply enjoy the nearest beach. The house was built in 2016 on the edge of a quiet village. It is located on a spacious garden with a picturesque oak grove, where you can find refreshment even in the hottest days. At first glance, all the effort and attention invested in the construction of this impressive estate is visible. The villa has at its disposal an infinity pool, a covered summer kitchen with seating and a fireplace, a parking lot in natural shade for several vehicles and a children's playground. As a separate building on the property, there is a tavern of only 25 m² with a fully equipped kitchen, fireplace and bathroom, ideal for gatherings. The villa with a total area of 350 m² consists of a ground floor with a living room, a dining room, a fully equipped kitchen, a separate toilet, one double bedroom with a private bathroom and access to a balcony, one bedroom with two separate beds and a private bathroom, another bedroom with two separate beds, and one bathroom located in the hallway of the bedroom on the ground floor. On the first floor of the house, there is one double bedroom with its own bathroom, and two double bedrooms that share a spacious bathroom with a bathtub. On the first floor of the house, the bedrooms use a common air conditioner located in the hallway. All rooms have their own television. In the basement of the house there is a game room with a pool table, darts and table football, a separate toilet, and a laundry room with a washing machine and dryer. The house has an opening for delivering laundry from the first floor to the laundry room. Installations for central heating have been carried out throughout the villa, and the future buyer is left to choose how the villa will be heated. Due to its excellent location, this villa is an excellent opportunity for all those who are looking for a quiet oasis away from the city crowds, and at the same time it is suitable for continuing to engage in tourist rentals.
