Description

Description: On the west coast of the Istrian peninsula, I have located the small town of Rovinj, the pearl of Croatian tourism that has been around for several years consecutively wins the champion's medal in Croatia. Rovinj, once a small fishing town, has grown into an incredibly popular world destination, literally unmissable the destination of all travel addicts, travelers, tourists, lovers of the sea, nature, culture and art, because Rovinj is itself art and something that cannot be described in words. Half a duplex house is for sale in the so-called Rovinj suburb, just a 5-minute drive away. The house is located in Rovinjско Selo, in a quiet place surrounded by beautiful modern and stone villas, family houses and holiday homes. This small place exudes luxury and an opportunity for a quality vacation and enjoying nature. This semi-detached house extends over 2 floors + attic. Starting from the entrance, we enter the house from the parking space, on the ground floor there is a kitchen and a living room with an exit to terrace where there is a swimming pool, also a smaller guest toilet and boiler room are located on the ground floor. The stairs lead us to the 1st floor of the house, reserved exclusively for 3 rooms and 2 bathrooms. In the high attic there is another room with a bathroom. The yard is surrounded by a stone wall. Due to its interesting location, proximity to facilities such as school, kindergarten, shop, bank, post office, etc., this house offers countless possibilities, from renting for tourist purposes, to peaceful family life. The price of the house refers to the completed project, on a turnkey basis. It is currently in the last phase of construction, that is, arranging furniture, installing doors and finishing the pool and garden.
