Description

Description: We are mediating for a sale of a flat located in the center of Trogir, situated on the second floor of an apartment building. Due to its location, any necessity is easily available. The area of the flat is about 102 m² and it consists of an entrance hall, a kitchen, dining room, two bedrooms, one bathroom and of a laundry with a toilet included. The flat initially had three bedrooms, so conversion into its original state is possible. The dining room leads to a terrace that covers up to 55 m². The terrace comes together with furniture along with a grill and gives a nice view of the city. An arranged purchase of antique furniture is also possible. The flat is completely air-conditioned and has an alarm and security system installed. It has a pellet furnace, as well. For further information, be free to contact us.
