Description

Description:

Liznjan is a fishing village with a naturally protected harbor located on a small peninsula in the very south of Istria. The place overlooks the clear blue sea and the Kvarner islands in their full beauty. In addition to tourism, the inhabitants of this place are also engaged in fishing today, as they did thousands of years ago. An undiscovered jewel, located in front of its shores, is the islet of Levan, with a beautiful sandy beach and several catering facilities, an ideal place for those looking for adventure and a different sea experience. Well... in that wonderful place, this extraordinary house is for sale, which has a lot to offer. To begin with, the house is a one-story building with an area of 395 m2. The ground floor consists of 3 apartments of 50m2. Each apartment has a lounge in front of the entrance and consists of a kitchen, dining room, living room, bathroom with toilet, and two bedrooms. The first floor of the house has a total area of 200 m2 and consists of a kitchen, dining room, bathroom, toilet and 4 bedrooms, 3 of which have access to their covered terrace. Within the house there is a large above-ground swimming pool, which is for shared use. The house has its own storage room of 12 m2, a garage and two taverns, one of which is in a unfinished condition with an area of 50 m2, and the other is completely finished and has an area of 25 m2. The house has been regularly maintained, and the last renovation in 2020 included the installation of new PVC joinery and painting works. The general condition of the building is at an enviable level and does not require additional investments.
