Description

Description:	Barban is a small, medieval settlement located in the southern part of eastern Istria. More precisely, above the Raša river valley, on the road Pula - Labin. The name Barban is of ancient or Roman origin, originating from the root of the word barb, which means beard, or from the Roman family name Barbius, Barbus, Barbatus. In the immediate vicinity of Barban, there is an agricultural plot of 7707m2. The land has its own access road. Water and electricity are located in the immediate vicinity, which further facilitates the cultivation of various agricultural crops.
