Description

Description:	The Renaissance town of Svetvinčenat, one of Istria's jewels with a rich tourist offer and numerous events, is located in the south of central Istria. This special town with a rich tradition, its interesting and diverse programs, the most prominent of which are the Medieval Festival, the Cheese Festival and the Dance and Non-Verbal Theater Festival, attracts numerous visitors every year. In a small town not far from Svetvinčent, there is this beautiful stone house that will provide the future owner with peace in beautiful nature. The house has 100 m ² of living space and 50 m2 of attic. The ground floor consists of a hallway, kitchen, bathroom, living room and two storage rooms. On the first floor there are two spacious bedrooms and an entrance hall that can be used for relaxing with a good book. Next to the house there is also an adjoining room of 10 m2 that can be used as a summer kitchen or tavern. In addition to the city's water supply, the house also has its own cistern, which is connected via a hydrophore. The roof was completely renovated in 2015. The house is habitable and sold furnished. Given that it is categorized and has been successfully rented for years, it can provide future owners with a quick return on investment.
