Description

Description: Svetvinčenat, old stone house for adaptation with a project At the entrance to the beautiful medieval town of Svetvinčenat, there is this old stone house for adaptation with a ready project for reconstruction. The house contains all the necessary infrastructure, and within walking distance there are all the necessary facilities such as a shop, coffee bar, church, school... The place is known for numerous manifestations and events that are held throughout the year and are excellent tourist attractions. The narrow center of the small town of Svetvinčenta is an ideal place for family get-togethers because it offers numerous attractions. The wider area offers a handful of different paths and forest paths, ideal for all those who want active rest and recreation. Due to its location, this property deserves a second chance, and after reconstruction, it represents a perfect property for tourism or year-round housing. ID CODE: 2006-26
