Description

Description: Istria, Rovinj Near beautiful beaches and a few minutes' walk from the very center of Rovinj, this apartment is located in a smaller building of a couple of apartments. The apartment is a step away from the necessary facilities for life, such as shops, educational institutions and the like. The apartment is located in the basement of the building and extends over more than 60m². It consists of an entrance hall, living room with kitchen and dining room, three bedrooms, bathroom, and a small covered terrace. It is very spacious, with high ceilings and light. Heating is provided by stone radiators placed in several rooms of the apartment. The parking lot is right in front of the entrance to the apartment. This property represents an investment in the future, considering that it is located in the tourist real estate zone, and as such it can be arranged and start a business that would eventually recover the invested investment.
