Description

Description: Pula is the largest city on the Istrian peninsula and offers a variety of cultural attractions. A rich itinerary through Pula's three-thousand-year past, which is confirmed at every step in the old town center, begins and ends with the Roman amphitheater. - Located in Pula, there is a building plot of 861 m2. The land has a regular shape and is located on a gentle slope. The land is reached by a neat access road, and the same road will be asphalted by the end of 2023. In addition to the paved road, water and electricity will be located right next to the land, and although a septic tank is currently being built, the sewage system should be installed soon.
