Description

Description: Poreč area, two duplexes on the edge of the village in a quiet place! This interesting duplex is located in a quiet place on the edge of the village between Poreč and Vrsar. Their total size is 340 m2 and spread over two floors. Each duplex on the ground floor has a spacious living room, dining room and kitchen according to the open space concept, one bedroom and a bathroom and toilet. The staircase leads to the first floor, where there are three more bedrooms with their own bathrooms and another room that is intended for a sauna or fitness room or can be converted into another smaller bedroom. The living room leads directly to the terrace where there is a sun deck with a swimming pool. The size of the pool is 25 m2. The houses are currently in the demolition phase and are being sold as such so that the future owners can have their home finished according to their own wishes and tastes. They are located in an ideal location, where Poreč is only 5 km away. There is an aquapark and tourist camps near the town. This property is an ideal investment for future owners who would finish their home according to their own wishes and needs. ID CODE: 1031-576
