Description

Description: Pazin in the central part of Istria is a town with a long and rich tradition. Located in the heart of the Istrian peninsula, only thirty kilometers from the sea of both eastern and western Istria. Life here takes place with equal intensity both in winter and summer. In Pazin, the impression of peace and relaxation and the domestic atmosphere is felt at every step. Central Istria is dotted with green hills and beautiful historic settlements and small towns. - Located in the vicinity of Pazin, there is a building plot of 1747 m² with a view of Lake Butoniga. The land is in decline and there are olive trees on it. The plot has an access road, and electricity, water (mains and spring water) and a telephone pass through it. The land is surrounded by nature with a beautiful view. ID CODE: 1338
