Description

Description:	ISTRIA, BUZET - Ruined stone house in the heart of nature Buzet is located in the very north of Istria, close to the border with Slovenia, and it is an old medieval town located on a hill above the very fertile valley of the largest Istrian river Mirna. Today, Buzet is best known as the "town of truffles" because of the divine tuber whose best "hunting grounds" in Istria are located right in the forests along the Mirna valley. In the vicinity of the town of Buzet, a dilapidated Istrian stone house in need of complete renovation is for sale. The house is a semi-detached building with an area of 76 floor plans. The yard of the house has an area of 8,311, of which 202m² is for construction purposes. The rest of the garden plot of 8,109 m² belongs to agricultural land, i.e. valuable arable land (P2). Near the house there is an olive grove with a total area of 1,302 m². There are two sources of drinking water near the house. There is no infrastructure on the ground, except for electricity, which is a few meters away. Macadam access road. Ownership 1/1. No burden. The property is definitely worth your attention, located in an idyllic microlocation that offers complete peace and privacy. Dear clients, the agency
