Description

Description: Central Istria, Žminj, Central Istria is a region that offers beautiful natural landscapes, rich cultural heritage, authentic architecture, and excellent gastronomic scene. Visitors can explore medieval towns, enjoy nature, taste local delicacies, and experience a unique atmosphere. One great advantage of this part of Istria is its excellent transportation connectivity, allowing quick access to all desired tourist destinations and the nearest beaches, as they are approximately equidistant from Rovinj, Poreč, and Pula, at a distance of about twenty kilometers. This beautiful renovated house is located in a small village near Žminj, on a quiet and secluded street. This property consists of two units, where the larger one has an area of 120m², completely renovated and ready for use, spread over two floors. On the ground floor, there is an entrance area, a guest toilet, and the largest part of the ground floor is occupied by a space containing a living room, dining area, and a charming kitchen. The upper floor features three bedrooms and two bathrooms, one of which has a separate toilet. The second unit, with an area of 100m², consists of a large tavern on the ground floor, while the first and second floors can be renovated according to your wishes and needs. This property is an investment opportunity with a potential for a return on investment since the house has been successfully rented out since its renovation. Simultaneously, due to its privacy and spaciousness, it can be a perfect family home. ID CODE: 1018-965
