Description

Description: Istria, Barban, surrounding area, Barban is a beautiful town located in central Istria, a region known for its rich history, unspoiled nature, and authentic Mediterranean atmosphere. This picturesque town attracts visitors with its charming architecture, medieval fortress, and cultural heritage. The distance to Pula is 28km, while the nearest beach is less than 10km away. The location is unique, with very accessible access from an asphalt road, allowing for easy and comfortable travel to this magical place. Surrounded by greenery and natural landscapes, this property offers privacy and tranquility, secluded from neighbors, creating a sense of a hidden sanctuary. The land has an impressive total area of 10,227 square meters. Of this total space, approximately 1000 square meters are designated as building land, providing an excellent opportunity for constructing your dream home. You can create a beautiful villa or a holiday house that will perfectly blend with the surroundings. The remaining land consists of a stunning forest that offers incredible opportunities for exploring nature and relaxation. Enjoy walks in your own private reserve, breathe fresh air, and experience the peace and harmony that only nature can provide. It is important to note that infrastructure, including electricity and water, is already nearby the plot. Now is the perfect time to seize this unique opportunity and become the owner of this property near Barban. Whether you are interested in building your home, making an investment, or simply desiring your own piece of nature, this land offers incredible possibilities. Don't miss out on this opportunity!
