Description

Description:

For sale is a traditional stone house in the center of Bribir, ideal for complete adaptation, reconstruction or replacement construction. This property is located within the construction area of the current Spatial Development Plan, giving you flexibility in planning your future project. The fantastic location in the wider center of Bribir gives you quick access to all the necessary facilities. This property has outstanding potential as a home for permanent residence or as a holiday home with the possibility of a tourist rental. The center of Bribir is dominated by the remains of the old walls and the town tower, giving you a sense of the historical atmosphere reminiscent of the time of the Frankopan princes. The house is connected by an asphalt access road and has connections to electricity, water and sewage. In addition to its excellent location, this property is also close to public transport, a park, a school and a kindergarten, making it ideal for family life. The sea is only 5000 meters away, which allows easy access to the beaches and enjoyment of sea activities. This stone house represents an exceptional opportunity for those who want to create their own home or invest in real estate with high potential.
