Description

Description: Lovran, house with a sea view. We are selling a house with a sea view. The property consists of 3 floors. On the first floor there is a living room, a kitchen, two bedrooms, a bathroom and a large terrace, while on the second and third floors there are four bedrooms each and each room has its own bathroom and balcony. The house has a large garden and three parking spaces. It also has two auxiliary buildings, one of which is a smaller apartment and the other is a boiler room. There is also an outdoor grill attached to the house. The location of the house itself is ideal because it is in the very center, but the position provides absolute peace and privacy. It also offers an excellent investment for tourism due to the house project itself and the proximity of all necessary facilities for life. There is a possibility of building a swimming pool.
