Donja Banda is a settlement within the municipality of Orebić, which consists of several hamlets: Prizdrina, Zakamenje, Županje selo, Zakotorac, Golubinica, Košarni do and Zagruda. These villages are a historically significant part of the Pelješac peninsula with small churches, cemeteries and Illyrian mounds and a specific way of building. The locals of Donja Banda are engaged in agriculture and cultivation of the famous grape variety Plavac mali, from which they produce the highest quality wines Dingač, Postup and Plavac with protected geographical origin.
