Description

Description: In many respects, the modern story of Istria and wine began precisely in the northwest of the Istrian peninsula. About 20 years ago, some of the ideas that helped Istrian winemaking in the era of great prosperity that started in the early 1990s, when new technologies were introduced into vintage production, were born here. One of the cities known for its wines and wineries is I Buje. At the foot of Mount Buja, there is also this vineyard with 8,850 m² of agricultural land. The planted vineyard is 6317 m² (malvasia variety) and has a regular shape. Custom ID: D-087 Remark: Viewing the property is possible with the signing of the brokerage contract, which is the basis for further actions related to the purchase and sale, all in accordance with the Act on Brokerage in Real Estate Transactions. The agency commission is determined by the brokerage contract, and is payable after the conclusion of the sales contract.
