offer dominated by olive growing and fishing, the hospitality of the local people and the traditions that are passed down from generation to generation. Tar-Vabriga is a municipality with six settlements that was created by separating from the city of Poreč. The story begins with the merging of two places into one, places that condense strong contrasts into a unique whole. There, at the same time, you come across the largest river of the Istrian peninsula, the Mirna, which flows into the restless sea and creates wonderful pictures in nature, but also the roads that lead inland, the realm of fresh forests and olive groves. The olive plantations that frame Tar and Vabriga and descend from the hinterland all the way to the sea, precisely because of their extraordinary location, they produce the best olive oil in Europe. with four stars. Its position is unparalleled - located only 500 meters from the coast of the Adriatic Sea, surrounded by green olive fields and aromatic Mediterranean vegetation. Built in 2021, every corner of this hotel bears the stamp of carefully considered details, from the elegance of the exterior facade to the interior decoration that unites aesthetics and functionality. This oasis of comfort offers 24 spacious rooms that can accommodate a total of 48 guests. Each room provides a sense of contemporary style with an emphasis on comfort, equipped with a seating area, air conditioning, TV, safe and private bathroom with shower. In addition to top-quality accommodation, the hotel also offers a diverse selection of facilities. Enjoy gastronomic delights in the restaurant, refresh yourself in the bar, organize business meetings in the conference room, keep fit in the gym and relax by the outdoor (99 m²) and indoor pool with massage. This hotel is not only an investment in space and luxury, but also in a story that connects tradition and innovation, hospitality and profitability. If you are looking for an opportunity that will add soul to your investments and enable you to create an unforgettable experience for your guests, look no further - this hotel is your right destination.
