Description

Description:	ISTRIA, GROŽNJAN - A detached stone ruin with a large building plot as a whole Grožnjan is a small Istrian place, but of great cultural significance, not only in Croatia but also internationally. He lives his summer months very intensely. Every year at the beginning of May, the small streets and squares of Grožnjan are transformed into a true artistic place. It opens its summer music academies for young people, its art, dance and drama workshops under the guidance of well-known experts and teachers. Here you come across many famous names from the world of music, art and drama. Grožnjan is a small town that is also well known for preserving and protecting the environment and striving to preserve the typical and traditional Istrian heritage. Not far from this beautiful town there is a stone ruin waiting for a new owner. The old building has a surface area of 192 m², is laid out and has great potential to become a beautiful stone villa in the future. The view from the property extends to the nearby church and hills in the distance. The house has a large garden area of 6,046 m², and the whole is located in the construction zone, which allows the future owner to build a beautiful complex of villas with additional facilities. The property has 3 marked access roads, water and
