Description

Description: Detached house on the island of Mljet with an open sea view for sale. The house is situated the second row from the sea and extends over two separate floors. Located on the 426 sqm plot and surrounded by a pine forest that provides complete privacy. Mljet is the most beautiful and most forested island in the Adriatic area and one of the most attractive pearls of the Mediterranean coast. Isolated and untouched, the island of mysticism, olive groves, vineyards and rich forests, ideal for exploring its rich flora and fauna and for enjoying the tranquil beauty of its unspoiled nature. The village Sobra is located outside the National Park, geographically oriented towards the Pelješac peninsula with which it is connected by a regular ferry line. There are several restaurants and shops in the area, making it an ideal place to live and relax. The house is away of the hustle and bustle and only a few minutes' walk to the beach and shops.
