Description

Description: We mediate in the sale of construction land located in an idyllic and peaceful environment, offering you the opportunity to relax and enjoy the silence and near all the amenities of Matulje. The land has an outstanding view of the greenery around it and offers a partial view of the sea, thus creating an ideal environment for your future property. Currently, the subdivision of the land is coming to an end, which means that the plot is divided into two parts. The first part is a road or path that is co-owned and covers approximately 200 square meters. The second part of the land is a building plot with an area of approximately 650 square meters. The location of the land is only 1 kilometer from the center of Matulje, which allows you quick access to all necessary amenities, shops, restaurants and other services. This land has great potential for various construction possibilities. You can decide to build a family house with a spacious yard or even consider building a building with three apartments.
