Description

Description:	ZADAR, TRIBANJ - building land on the edge of the national park Paklenica Our offer includes an attractive building land located in the picturesque village of Tribanj, which is only 200 meters from the sea. This land offers a spectacular view, giving you the opportunity to enjoy the beautiful seascape every day. Access to the land is easy thanks to the public road, and electricity is already available to the plot, facilitating the construction process. All the necessary papers for the land are in order and ownership is 1/1, which ensures security and transparency when buying. The land area is 1118 square meters. This building plot represents an extraordinary investment opportunity for the construction of a coastal home or tourist accommodation in one of the most attractive locations on the Adriatic. Tribanj, located on the coast of northern Dalmatia, near the city of Zadar, is a small village that stands out for its untouched nature and unique combination of mountains and sea. This destination attracts lovers of nature, peace and quiet. One of the most important characteristics of Tribanj is its coast, which offers beautiful beaches and bays where you can enjoy the clean and clear waters of the Adriatic Sea. Tribanj is also close to Paklenica National Park, which makes it a perfect excursion destination for mountaineers and nature lovers. The park offers various hiking trails and rock climbing opportunities that surround the area. This is a place
