Description

Description: Barban, surroundings, we are selling an excellent building plot in a beautiful location only 3 kilometers from the medieval town of Barban. The town of Barban is famous as one of the towns with the most famous cultural heritage in Istria and the traditional knight's game - the Ring Race, which gathers many fans of traditional events every year and in a short time brings back to this town a special medieval atmosphere. In the immediate vicinity of this very place with a rich past, this excellent building plot is located. The field has access from an asphalted road, and all the necessary infrastructure is located next to the field. The total area of the field is 784 m² and is completely within the construction zone. The terrain has a slight slope, ideal for an open view of the surrounding beautiful green landscape. The orientation of the terrain is east-west, which offers all-day sunshine on the plot. The location is very suitable for building a holiday home in the center of beautiful green Istria. ID CODE: 2003-563
