Description

Description:	The eastern part of Istria hides numerous refuges as an escape from the city crowds. One of them is located just a few kilometers from the medieval town of Labin and the small fishing village of Rabac, which enchants every time with its blue beaches. In the green oasis, this beautiful ground floor house with a total area of 245.70 m² will be built, the construction of which will begin in September this year, the planned completion of works is the second half of 2023. The entrance introduces you to the open space kitchen with dining area and living room which then offers access to a covered terrace for pleasant gatherings and a beach pool, then contains two bedrooms with bathroom, another bedroom and a guest toilet and storage / laundry. It is for sale unfurnished in order to provide its future owner with decorations according to their own taste, wishes and preferences! Enjoy creating your future home or property for tourist rental to serve as a great investment for a faster return on investment. The house will also contain parking spaces and an engine room.
