Description

Description:	BAKAR, HRELJIN - dilapidated house 100m2 with a view of the sea + environment 1677m2 We offer a dilapidated house with a floor plan area of 60m2 with a yard of 49m2 and a plot of land of 1667m2 in Hreljin. The house is located in a great location, surrounded by nature and with a beautiful view of the sea. It has been completely cleaned and is ready for reconstruction. This can be excellent for family life due to its proximity and good connection to Rijeka, but also as an investment, due to its attractive location, beautiful view and proximity to the sea and beaches, and beautiful nature, this can also become a profitable vacation home. HRELJIN: The beautiful town of Hreljin has been mentioned since ancient times in 1255 when it became the property of a noble, well-known Croatian Frankopana family. Today, the remains of two churches, the belfry of St. George

and the preserved chapel of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Hreljin is an integral part of Bakra, which is located in the beautiful Primorje-Gorski Kotar County. It is located on a rocky hill, going downhill, with protruding caves cultivated into vineyards. The whole area is full of beautiful nature, and the place is near the cities of Rijeka and Crikvenica, as well as the Kvarner Islands and the surrounding beautiful places. Perfect food, wine roads, recreational facilities provide a perfect rest for soul and body. Peace and the chirping of birds provide a complete oasis of peace, and those who want to have a good time will not be disappointed by the summer offer of the nearby larger cities. Lovers of antiquities and history must visit Hrelj Castle, which once defended the city, and breathe in the breath of some ancient, past, mystical times and feel the breath of the 13th century. We have already mentioned the European Capital of Culture in 2020, the main center of the Primorje-Gorski Kotar County, the port city of Rijeka, which tells its own special story. There is no shortage of entertainment, culture and good food there. Nearby is the Crikvenica Riviera, which abounds in sports and recreational facilities and crystal clear sea with beautiful beaches. Numerous restaurants, museums, churches, untouched nature, concerts and various other events have been attracting tourists for years, and their number is increasing every year. And when you've had your fill of laughter, noise, good music and great food, Hreljin will provide you with the perfect rest for body and soul. Tourists keep coming back, discovering something new.
