Description

Description:	This weekend house is a real hidden treasure. The versatility of this property is extraordinary, because you can use the beautiful, existing space as it is or you have the opportunity to increase it. The weekend house in its original form offers 53 m2 enough space for a small family and consists of a living room, kitchen and dining room, bathroom with tub and a large bedroom and enclosed terrace. The kitchen is equipped with all necessary appliances and offers enough space. The weekend house also has a pantry located at the back of the house. The land is equipped with automatic irrigation, which is responsible for the greenery in the garden, and a big bonus is that the water is pumped from its own well. The property is located in a green and family village just 400 m from the sea. Quiet and tidy residential area and spacious green areas give the district a special charm. In the nearby camp, long walks and relaxed cycling tours by the beautiful sea are possible. Various kindergartens and schools can be easily reached on foot or by bike, and you are in Pula in just 10 minutes. ID CODE: 66462
--------------	---
