Description

Description:

Istria, Žminj, Surroundings Experience the charm of Istria in this unique property located near Žminj, in an authentic Istrian village. This magical location offers a high-quality lifestyle with proximity to shops, schools, restaurants, and cafes, making it a perfect home or investment. On the first floor of the main house, there are four spacious rooms, providing the opportunity for excellent living space. The attic offers untapped potential for additional residential space, adapting to your needs. The ground floor of the house captivates with its tavern, creating a perfect place for gatherings with family and friends. The former barn, consisting of a ground floor and first floor, is the jewel of this property. With the potential for a residential area of approximately 120m², this barn offers an exceptional opportunity to create additional space according to your preferences. The exit to the enclosed courtyard of 150m² further enriches this unique property. With this house comes about 3250m² of agricultural land located right at the entrance to the village. Perfect for those considering an investment, this property offers significant rental potential. With the popularity of the tourist destination in the vicinity and easy access to the Istrian Ypsilon, the attractiveness of this property for potential tenants is undeniable. Let this property become your oasis of peace and a potential investment. Schedule a viewing and discover all the charms that this estate has to offer! ID CODE: 1018-1123
