Description

Description: Istria, Rovinj, center This charming studio apartment is located in the very heart of Rovinj, not far from the beautiful Rovinj waterfront, which offers an unforgettable view of the old part of town with the church on top. Representing an incredible opportunity for investment in the tourism sector, this property is surrounded by all the necessary facilities for a comfortable life and enjoying the charms of the city, such as shops, catering and the like. The property is located on the ground floor of a century-old building and covers approximately 40m². It consists of a spacious living area and a bathroom. Considering its size, it offers enough space for arranging a kitchen with a dining room, while the living/night area provides a comfortable environment with a bed and a sofa. With a special emphasis on the potential of this property, with a little imagination and investment in renovation, you can create a space that will shine and become a successful tourist accommodation. The micro location of this property is exceptional, with the surrounding apartments recording high occupancy during the summer months, which further emphasizes the investment value. Do not miss the opportunity to become the owner of this property and start a business that will eventually bring a return on your investment. Contact us to find out more and start creating new memories in the heart of the old town of Rovinj! ID CODE: 1029-525
