Description

Description: Poreč, surroundings, ground floor apartment with garden This beautiful apartment on the ground floor of a modern new building offers comfortable living space on an area of 76.56 m². It is located in a small, quiet place only 2 km from the coast and 6 km from the picturesque town of Poreč, offering an ideal combination of proximity to the sea and the silence of the rural environment. It consists of a spacious entrance hall, kitchen, dining room and open-plan living room, two comfortable bedrooms, a storage room and a modern bathroom. The connection with the garden is particularly noteworthy - from the living room there is a covered terrace of 16.5 m², ideal for relaxation. The emphasis is on the quality of construction and equipment: air conditioning in all rooms, ceramic tiles, laminate, dark glass walls on the terraces, PVC carpentry with electric shutters and burglar-proof entrance doors. The apartment will be available turnkey, without furniture, and completion of the works and occupancy are planned for December 2024. The location offers the practicality of everyday life with the proximity of a school, kindergarten, pharmacy, post office, shops, restaurants and a clinic, all within a few minutes' drive from the apartment itself. The apartment has its own parking space in front, providing additional convenience. This property is subject to VAT, and the displayed price includes VAT. Considering its location and facilities, the apartment is an excellent investment for family life, vacation or the possibility of tourist rental. Located in a peaceful environment, it provides the perfect balance between privacy and connectivity to the necessary amenities.
