Description

Description:	The building plot is a real paradise for building a luxury villa with an infinity pool and a beautiful view of the sea. All fees are already paid, which makes the construction process easier. Last building plot, complete privacy! The property would consist of a spacious villa, and on the ground floor there would be three spacious bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom equipped with walk-in showers. In addition, the ground floor would include a wellness area with a hot tub and a sauna, offering residents relaxing moments with a view of the sea. There would also be an area with billiards, table football and a game zone for entertainment. On the first floor, there is an open-space living area with a wonderful view of the sea. The living room would have a fireplace, and next to it there would be a kitchen, a dining room and an additional toilet. The spaces would be illuminated by natural light penetrating through the elegant aluminum glass walls. The entire property would have underfloor heating with a heat pump, providing a comfortable temperature all year round. The yard of 980 m² would provide additional luxury with a large terrace equipped with an outdoor kitchen, barbecue and a table under the pergola. A heated infinity pool would be located in the garden, creating an ideal place to relax and enjoy the view of Kvarner. Three

parking spaces are also provided. The location of the land is extremely privileged with a view of the entire Kvarner, and the surroundings offer additional privacy thanks to old buildings and family houses. The land is strategically located so that no construction is possible in front of it, and the vegetation on both sides protects it from the view. The distance from the first beach is only 10 minutes by car, and the center of Rijeka can be reached in 15 minutes by car. This property perfectly combines luxury, privacy and proximity to important amenities, making it an excellent choice for sophisticated buyers.
