Description

Description: Apartment with high ceilings unusual and rarely offered In the heart of the Gaj settlement in Barajevo, which is located approximately 230 m above sea level, on the ground floor of a building flush with the ground - concrete in front of the entrance, a nice comfortable apartment of 76.68 m² with high ceilings. The apartment has its own separate entrance. The apartment is very unusual, well thought out and designed, we enter the hallway, and from the hallway we enter a large kitchen with a huge work space for the housewife in the middle of the kitchen, which is on wheels and can be moved as needed, so if someone does not want such a kitchen space, it can be made dining room and living room ie. various combinations are possible. From that space, you go down to the arranged basement of approx. 50 m², you don't have the impression of a basement. From the kitchen we enter the large living room, and the ceiling height in all rooms is 3.80m Also from the kitchen we enter the second hall and from there we enter 2 bedrooms which are on 2 levels. The apartment has a separate bathroom and separate WC. Central heating at the heating plant. The space is unusually decorated, warm, ideal for a family. The bus station is a 1-minute walk from where the bus to Banovo brdo departs. Parking in front of the building. A market, bakery, butcher, post office and health center are a few minutes away. A 7-8 minute walk to the kindergarten. Behind the building, a children's playground and the area of the current owners where you can plant something organic if you are a gardener. The owner of the apartment is registered 1/1. It is worth watching because it is highly recommended.
