Adriatic Sea. The apartment enriched with natural light, the size of 63 m² on the first floor consists of a hallway, two bedrooms, a living room and a kitchen, one bathroom, and offers one balcony, which can be accessed from the bedroom, and a terrace on the south side, to which the exit is possible from the living room. The balcony and terrace offer an enviable view and a perfect place to enjoy the tranquility of the surroundings. The apartment is sold equipped with barely used furniture, which is the embodiment of a combination of tradition and comfort, and exudes elegance and refinement. The residential building is surrounded by greenery, so the ownership of the apartment also includes a piece of extremely beautifully landscaped garden (courtyard), where you can find various plant crops, as well as one private parking space. In every room of the apartment there is an air conditioner intended for heating and cooling, and there is also the possibility of installing a heat pump and connecting it to the already existing central heating (radiators). Tenants have at their disposal a common laundry room with separate storage, as well as a common grill oasis equipped with an oven and tables, perfect for summer get-togethers. The residential building is located in a dead-end, private street without traffic, and as such offers a unique experience of life on the coast. Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Business Conditions www.dux-nekretnine.hr/opci-uvjeti-poslovanja ID CODE: 26833
