Description

Description:

ISTRIA, PULA - An ideal family house located in a quiet location near the city center and beautiful natural beaches. The house with a total of 115 m2 of living space is ideal for a peaceful and safe life for a larger or smaller family, close to the city, beautiful natural beaches and everything needed for safe and peaceful family life. Thus, the house is divided into two floors, ground floor, first floor and first floor. On the first floor (ground floor) there is an entrance hall and a smaller lobby. Then a separate and separate kitchen with rich content, which is completely equipped with the new "Gorenje" technology. The dining room and living room are separated from the kitchen in a larger open space, decorated in a modern and simple style. On the ground floor there is also a smaller bathroom with a shower and a storage room under the stairs. The internal staircase leads to the second floor (first floor), where there are a total of 3 bedrooms and a larger bathroom with a bathtub. Each floor of the house is equipped with air conditioning, as is the master bedroom, while the living room also has a wood stove. The yard with a total area of 400 m2 is decorated in a simple tone, which offers the new owners the opportunity to decorate according to their own will. Next to the house there is a garage with an automated folding door of sufficient size for one car and the rest of the space that can be used as a tool room or additional storage. There is enough free space on the lot for parking up to 3 or 4 cars. The content of the garden is additionally enriched by a larger stone barbecue, as well as a smaller terrace in the shade. The back part of the house can be used as a personal garden, but so can the rest of the green area around the house.
