Description

Description: Commercial building, associated land, garages, parking, storage... with the possibility of use for residential purposes for sale. The facility is composed of ground floor rooms with wide and unhindered access, the construction of the future road south of the facility is particularly interesting, although direct visibility is already provided on the busiest road in the Republic of Croatia. The property is located in Trogir, under the main road D8, in the immediate vicinity of SPLIT

AIRPORT. The facility is located in a commercial and residential zone and offers very wide possibilities of use. It can be used for business, residential and tourist activities, catering, Hostel, business office complex, sales representative center, warehouse sales center, Rent a Car center, residential accommodation for a large number of workers...etc. A truly large number of possibilities for using this property, which is located 5 minutes from Split Airport, the center of Trogir, Divulje beach, access to the A1 highway and the state road D8. The business building was previously used for production, sales, storage and tourist catering purposes. It is currently designed and arranged for catering, trade, sales, service and other services. It has a large parking lot as well as the possibility of expansion in the surrounding area. The orientation of the building is south-southeast-southwest and has an open view of the sea, islands and airport.
