Description

Description: Extremely rare in Istria, a stone house for renovation with 33,000 m² of land is for sale, 13 km from Pula. A green oasis ideal for a family business! You are thinking about your own large estate, land, green surroundings, a house or a villa-hacienda in isolation, far from your neighbors, and yet in ten minutes you are in the city or at the sea. In southern Istria, 13 km from Pula and 2 km from Vodnjan, 33,000 m² of land is offered, with an old stone ruin house for renovation of 174 m². It is possible to renovate the house in the existing dimensions, but it is not possible to expand it. This beautiful green oasis of peace offers the new owners maximum privacy, it is ideal for a luxurious vacation villa, or a family farm where the future owners would do exactly what they want, be it olive growing, viticulture, cultivation of organic plants, poultry, horses, or housing economic activity - thus OPG related to tourism. There is no electricity or water connection on the plot, so it would be best to obtain electricity from the solar system, and water from underground water - in this way, total independence from energy sources would be achieved.
