Description

Description:	ISTRIA, BARBAN - Estate with two buildings for renovation Barban is a small picturesque medieval acropolis-type settlement in Istria, in the southeast of the Istrian peninsula, located above the Raša river valley: It is only 20 km from Pula and 12 km from Labin. It is well connected by the main roads: Pula-Rijeka

highway, regional roads Barban - Žminj and Barban - Vodnjan. It is known for the knightly game of the Race to the Ring, which is traditionally held in August, the festival of figs and fig groves, and other smaller events that have developed over the last ten years, since rural tourism has been rapidly developing. A spacious estate with two houses for renovation is for sale in one of the settlements near Barban. A small part of the land is of construction type, and the rest is of agricultural type. The first house is an old Istrian stone house in a row that needs a complete renovation, and extends through the ground floor and first floor with a total living area of 120 m². The house has water and electricity connection. An asphalted road leads to the property. Behind the house is a ruined stone barn, marked and recorded in the cadastral register. The neighboring property also offers an antique for renovation, providing potential for expansion or additional project ideas. Ideal property for lovers of the Istrian way of life and preservation of cultural heritage through various service activities provided by this climate. It also has potential for investors who are engaged in the construction of holiday homes in the rural part of Istria. Dear clients, the agency commission is charged in accordance with the General Business Conditions:
