This apartment is recommended by a real estate agent! Zadar is an ancient city, built in the center of the Croatian Adriatic, full of historical and cultural sights. In history, Zadar was first mentioned in the 4th century BC as a settlement of the Illyrian tribe Liburna under the name Jader, and then throughout history it changed to Idassa (Greek source), Jadera (Roman source), Diadora, Zara (during the rule of Venice and later Italy), to the name Zadar. Today, the city of Zadar is a preserved monument of different historical times and cultures, which set the boundaries and visible contours of its urban appearance, and as during the past centuries of turbulent history, it is still protected by its four patron saints - St. Krševan, St. Šime, St. Stošija and St. Zoilo. It is the cultural, economic and administrative center of Northern Dalmatia. Although it is a culturally extremely attractive city, Zadar also accepts its role as a tourist center, and has been doing so for more than a hundred years. Namely, in 1899, the mountaineering tourist association "Liburnija" was founded in Zadar, which is one of the first tourist activities in Croatia. There are ten modern marinas with almost 7,500 moorings in the surroundings of Zadar, as well as five national parks: Paklenica, Kornati, Plitvička jezera, Krka and Northern Velebit. Diving, alpinism, rafting and canoeing, freshwater and sea fishing, hundreds of kilometers of trails for mountain bikes, horseback riding - these are just a part of the offer that is provided for spending an active vacation. Zadar builds its attractiveness on the interweaving of culture with tourism, but also as a center of various specific offers and activities: nautical tourism and marinas, hotels, apartments and villas, small and large catering environments, beautiful beaches and swimming pools, promenades, excursions to interesting surroundings and others tourist events. Since July 2017, Zadar has been on UNESCO's list of world cultural heritage. It is included in this list because of the three kilometer long Zadar city ramparts that were built in the 16th century by the Republic of Venice to defend against the Turks as part of the defense system that borders the Zadar peninsula.
